2006 (May 26): obituary from internet (www.legacy.com/QuadCityTimes/DeathNotices.asp?Page=LifeStoryPrint&PersonID=17882248):

William H. Quigley - 2006

William H. Quigley, a chiropractor, died May 18, 2006, in Dunnellon, Fla. He was born in Munhall, Pa., and had lived in California. He was a Lutheran and former Dean of Continuing Education and executive vice president at Palmer School of Chiropractic. He earned his bachelor's degree at University of Pittsburgh, master's degree at University of Bridgeport and his Ph.D. in Chiropractic at Palmer School of Chiropractic. He also was the director of Clearview Sanitarium in Davenport, Iowa, and was a worldwide lecturer and accomplished writer in both the chiropractic and psychiatric fields of learning. He was a U.S. Army veteran, serving in World War II. Survivors include his wife, Dorothy, Citrus Springs; and daughter, Linnea Quigley-NaCarlo (Frank), of Pompano Beach, Fla. Roberts Funeral Home of Dunnellon assisted the family.

Published in the Quad-City Times on 5/25/2006